Hannah

Hannah has worked at the store since she was eighteen, hoping to one day use her experience to get a management position herself, always a little unsure about herself and what to try.

With the original managers sudden disappearance, Hannah finally has a chance to prove herself as the new manager of the Negligee store.

The image features a character profile for Jasmin Neglige. On the left, an anime-style illustration of Jasmin with blonde hair in pigtails and blue eyes is shown wearing a black strapless corset. On the right, another illustration of her is shown wearing a black lace negligee. The background is a light orange with a subtle pattern. The name 'Jasmin' is written in pink, and 'Neglige' is in a large, stylized red font with a heart in the letter 'i'. A central text box contains her bio, and a grid of orange buttons lists her physical and personal details.

Jasmin

Jasmin is the oldest of the new applicants to work at the store.

Unlike the others she has been working for the past couple of years as a dancer and is not currently enrolled in college.

Jasmin however wants to move on with her life, get a new job and find a better balance between her passions and work.
